

Emotional, heart-wrenching, but full of hope and promise, delivered with power and passion by an exciting fresh new voice...that's the best way to describe the music of Becky Carey and her uplifting release "I Wait For You" on Creative Soul Records. Named as a 2008 Momentum Award "Contemporary Artist of the Year" Top 5 Finalist, Becky Carey is optimistic about the future God has planned for her, which is obvious to anyone who meets her by the passion and joy she exudes. Also obvious; however, this time from the transparency of her heartfelt song lyrics, is that God has walked Becky through a season in the desert and a season of pruning in preparation for her journey ahead.

"Many nights, in the midst of heart breaking despair, I cried out to God to heal and change the hurtful and stressful situations in my life, but things kept getting worse. After coming to the end of myself, emotionally exhausted and out of ideas, God showed me that I was carrying burdens that were His, not mine, to carry and to solve so, I "let go and let God". That is when change began. Surprisingly though, the problems didn't change, I did. I quit nagging God and began to really trust Him at His Word. Oh, the amazing peace I've found."

Almost immediately, God ushered Becky into a new season of her life which included a chain of events that connected Becky with producer Eric Copeland and led to the creation of her CD, "I Wait For You" on Creative Soul Records.

"I work with a lot of Christian artists that have a heart for ministry, but rarely do I get an artist who has as rich a music background, and strong a commitment as Becky Carey. The first day we sat down together I knew she had a fire in her that came from years of experience and extensive performance background. Add to that her nicely developing songwriting skills, and that powerhouse voice, and wow...we really have something here! We expect great things for her music ministry for years to come." - Eric Copeland, President, Creative Soul Records/Producer, Becky Carey, "I Wait For You"

With the ability to move hearts to tears one minute and then feet to dance in the next, this anointed contemporary Christian singer-songwriter and worship leader overflows with joy as she ministers with her soulful voice proclaiming freedom to the bound and encouraging everyone who will hear that their God given purpose, dreams and plans can be realized through the power and provision found in a relationship with the risen Redeemer, Jesus Christ!

Becky's music is an original eclectic mix of Pop, Rock, and Contemporary Gospel, a style that appeals to a diverse audience and is finding its way onto radio shows around the country. Five songs, out of the ten original offerings included on "I Wait For You", have been selected to spin on the syndicated international radio show, Power Praise Radio.

"I'm just stepping out of the boat and keeping my eyes on Christ. It is truly all about Him! The message that God compels me to share through my music is simple yet profound. He loves each one of us beyond measure...just look at the cross! Will you 'Let go and let God' and trust Him totally with your life?"
